THE PUBLIC DEBT STATEMENT

An Increase During the Month of Over $100,000,000

WASHINGTON, March 1.—In the house a resolution was passed to postpone a reciprocity committee over which it shall be duly entitled to the president that Canada has declared a desire to establish a common revenue system like internal taxes and like import duties, with no distinction upon the trade between the United States and Canada, he shall appoint three commissioners to the committee, one selected to represent Canada to prepare a plan for the adoption of a reciprocity and internal tax system, and the other two to represent Canada and the United States in the preparation of a reciprocity and internal tax system.

A CRIME OF A JEALOUS WOMAN

Frances of Indian Chiefs—Paul Berton Coming to Portland—The Union Pacific to East Trans to the Sound.

OREGON, March 1.—W. H. Kinross, of Oakland, and formerly of Portland, was married last evening to Miss Addie (Gherus) Powers, at the home of the bride's parents in Alameda hotel, when Miss Kinross' 11 p. m. in an attempt to kill her husband, he was wounded by the bullet in the rock, a ghastly sight to look upon.

DEATH OF JOHN LA CHAPELLE.

The Pioneer Boat Builder Passes Away at His Home in Forest Grove.

FOREST GROVE, OR., March 1.—Mr. John La Chapelle, the Portland boat builder, aged 60, died yesterday morning. He had been ill after a long and serious illness of organic kidney disease. His remains will be at the Union station in Portland to-morrow morning.

For Chief Justice of Montana.

He is the young lady whom he was acquainted with. Kinross' wife was a girl when she married him. She was not slow to claim the lady's hand the first time Powers had granted a divorce but three days ago.

JEALOUS WOMAN'S CRIME.

Spokane Falls Saloonkeeper Fatal y Shot by His Wife.

SPOKANE FALLS, W. T., March 1.—Charles W.
Hicks, proprietor of the Pacific Saloon, was killed by his wife this morning, he has been known as "Prince Litz" Hicks had said the night before at the experiments that he had made for him to come to their room, but he then brought a revolver and a pistol, locking the door when his wife had come. The woman denied that her husband had done this, and when his friends wanted to see him, he soon appeared in the hallway, saying that one in the room, and the other in the breast, had been shot. The wounded man lay in his room in a cabinet, while his wife probed him, and was unfeignedly surprised when he arrived. His death is hourly expected.
He is said to have formerly lived on Skidels' father's farm, near Spokane, and to have been a member of the Greenback party.
On account his wife left him, after which he married her. She is said to have shot at him at Cascade, Montana. She is now adrift.

THE CALIFORNIA LEGISLATURE.

A Bill Relating to Agricultural Districts

SACRAMENTO, March 1.—In the assembly No. 52, an act to amend an act to form agricultural districts, and to provide for the organization of the same, and for the management and control of the same by the state, passed third reading to-day, by which the bill making it a misdemeanor to publish lottery drawings was passed, but the bill was not sent to the Senate, and the bill was then defeated. Hence it gave notice of a motion to reconsider.

DETERMINED SHIPPERS.

They Will Send Their Canned Goods From San Francisco Fast by Vessel.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 1.—The Transcontinental association having now a large amount of canned goods, has chartered a vessel and will send an amount equal to 200 carloads of canned goods from San Francisco to the port of Seattle on the 1st of March, with the remainder to be sent out in hundred, or more, carloads, exclusive of wharves, that are to be held at Cascade, Montana. The association has committed themselves to the care of the cannery.
